Elisabeth von Trapp's awe-inspiring performance on the stage of the storied [Ocean City] Music Pier was extraordinary. Her energy, passion and refined style highlighted the memorable evening of song.

newport opera house

Never has the Newport Opera House been filled with such beautiful music. Thank you for a very special evening, one we shall long remember and treasure.

chautauqua institution

A powerful, artful and inspiring evening of song ... the audience was literally thrilled and enthralled with her performance. Elisabeth has such style, passion, energy and commitment to her music ... one comes away refreshed and renewed.

midland center for arts

Elisabeth created magical musical moments ... the response was immediate and strong ... two standing ovations in one performance. You can bank on creating a solid support of future audience members and subscribers when you book Elisabeth.

fredonia opera house

The performance she gave our audience was extraordinarily musical, bridging all ages, exposing them to new ideas while reinforcing wonderful traditions. From the moment she arrived, until the last patron left the theater, she showed herself to be a consummate professional.

lancaster opera house

Sensational and Sold Out ... Elisabeth's concert was a great box office success. We sold out two performances. If time allowed we could have sold out two more.

What Brilliant Talent ... a voice which even today echoes in my mind

greenbrier valley theater

Her beautiful voice is full of life and expression. She makes the emotion of a song accessible and has a remarkably graceful way of communicating her understanding of the song to the audience. Her technique is superb. She is a wonderful musician.
